

Easy-read newsletter

Autumn 2023

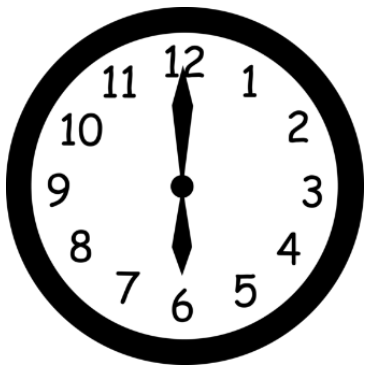

Welcome to Kingwood's Easy-read newsletter!

This year the Autism at Kingwood party will be held at Millets Farm on Tuesday 5th December. This is where we held our summer celebration.

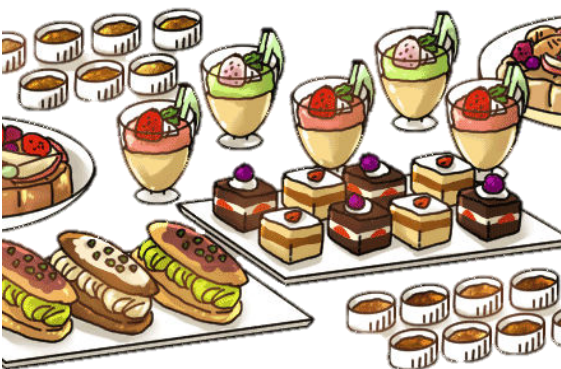

When will the party start?

The party starts at 6pm and ends at 8.30pm

Where will the party be?

The party will be at Millets Farm Centre, Kingston Road, Frilford, OX13 5HB.

Who will be at the party?

Everyone we support, all staff and families are very welcome to join us. There will be a buffet and DJ. We hope everyone will have lots of fun!

Ask your Support Worker to book you a place, or email events@kingwood.org.uk

Our new Chief Executive

We recently welcomed our new Chief Executive, Sarah Butcher. Sarah is enjoying getting to know everyone at Kingwood, as you can see in this photo! In this picture, Sarah (second from the right) is getting to know Charlotte, Lydia and Susan, as well as their support workers, Beverley, Esther, Support Manager Hannah and Area Manager Carol.

Autism Acceptance Month

In April, we walked around Blenheim Palace. It was a very fun day.

We hope we can do another one!

Litter Picking Day

We helped clean up in our local area by picking up bits of litter! The team filled a whole bag of litter and put it in the bin after. Well done!

Metal Detecting

We did some metal detecting at the allotment in the hopes of finding some treasure. We found some bits of metal and even a wedding ring!

Trip to Legoland

Our recent trip to Legoland was great fun! The Dragon roller coaster was fun and we enjoyed looking at the Lego cities.

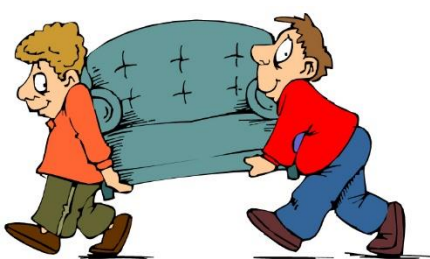

Allotment Picnic

It was a sunny day, so we decided to have a picnic at the allotment.

Renee decided we should celebrate because we have grown lots of fruit and vegetables!

If you'd like to spend some time in our lovely allotment, ask your Support Worker or contact Renee renee.zgorzynski@kingwood.org.uk

Office Move

Our office in Reading has now closed down. We are fully moved into our office in Didcot now!
