

JOB DESCRIPTION

Post: Support Worker
Location: In any supported living house in Oxfordshire.
Accountable to: Support Manager, via Senior Support Worker

Context

Autism at Kingwood provides support for autistic adults, many with learning disabilities, enabling them to live successfully in their own home and supporting them to access their community and participate in meaningful activities.

'The Kingwood Approach' ensure that the support we deliver to the autistic person we support, puts them truly at the centre. Ensuring we use communication techniques that suit the individual, we can work alongside them to support them to make choices about their lives.

Job Purpose

- To work with staff and people we support within the philosophy, procedures and established ethos of Autism at Kingwood.
- To work alongside people we support, to enable them to participate in society through a lifestyle based on personal choice and to work in a way that is respectful to them and to place their needs at the centre of all work undertaken.
- Working with Support Managers and Senior Support Workers, to contribute to the planning, implementation, review and ongoing development of person centred support services.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

Under the direction of a Senior Support Worker

- To work creatively and appropriately with individuals, continually encouraging them to seek opportunities that are of interest to them, and to support individuals in achieving goals that they have set for themselves.
- To support individuals to exercise their rights and responsibilities and to make their own choices.
- To support and encourage individuals to develop and maintain the relationships they want

- To support individuals with their daily living skills, including assistance with meal preparation, housekeeping and managing their money.
- To accompany individuals outside their home and where needed to provide assistance and support for activities such as withdrawing their money from cash machines, shopping or attending appointments.
- To provide assistance with personal care and taking of medication if required.
- To liaise with family, friends and other external agencies (as agreed with the individual).

Person Centred Service Delivery and Development

- To participate in the development and review of individuals' Person Centred Plans.
- To participate in the development and/or review of all support documentation including risk assessments, individual learning plans and opportunity plans.
- To ensure necessary record keeping is maintained and where required to assist in the preparation of regular reports.
- To contribute to the recording and evaluation of all services delivered in accordance with specific person centred approaches, including Active Support.
- To actively contribute to the continual development and quality of the service.

General Responsibilities

- To work within the agreed guidelines for everyone that receives support and to adhere to the core values that Autism at Kingwood upholds in all work undertaken.
- To understand and support the aims and values of Autism at Kingwood when dealing with individuals and colleagues.
- To be prepared to work with challenging behaviours and acknowledge the work may require the post holder to work within emotive and hostile environments.
- To support Autism at Kingwood's policies and procedures to promote the aims of Kingwood.
- To promote equal opportunities.
- To communicate effectively, maintaining good working relationships and promoting an atmosphere of support and encouragement in compliance with Autism at Kingwood's Positive Working Environment Policy.
- To participate in agreed rotas to provide support in accordance with the needs of the individuals supported.

- Where appropriate, to assist in the induction of new staff.
- To complete actions and objectives to required standards within agreed timescales.
- Ensure issues of concern are elevated to a more senior member of staff if the situation requires specific expertise.
- Participate in training and development activities relating to legislative requirements\standards in accordance with Autism at Kingwood's Training Policy.
- To participate in regular supervision and support sessions.
- To routinely attend and actively participate in team meetings.
- To comply with the standards of conduct and practice set by the Care Quality Commission (CQC) and/or any other regulatory body.
- To comply with duties placed upon employees by Autism at Kingwood's Health and Safety Policy and related procedures. To act in accordance with all instructions, information and training supplied in relation to those duties.
- To proactively extend knowledge, including 100% completion of required training.
- To comply with duties placed upon employees by Kingwood's policies on Confidentiality and Data Protection.
- Any other duties which may reasonably be required.